NOTES TO HOST FAMILIES:

1. Please accompany your student(s) to the tuition premises on their first course morning.
2. Ensure that students have your name, address and telephone number.
3. Students will be asked to make a note of any alterations to the course programme on their last page at the back of their course files. Please check these carefully.
4. Note that packed lunches are required on all lesson and excursion days. On other days students are to have lunch with their host families
5. Please make sure that on excursion day's students leave your home in sufficient time to reach the departure point punctually.
6. Ensure that your student(s) knows the times and numbers of the buses and, in particular, the last bus home.
7. Please collect your students after evening activities if possible. Ensure that students leave their passports and identification cards in a safe place and not carry them on their person. However, EJO student cards should be carried at all times.
